Important

Payment Policy / Booking Policy

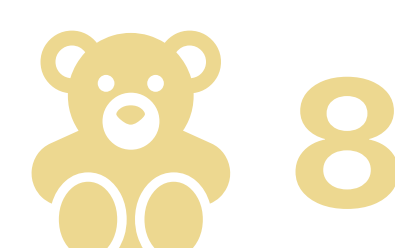

Payment Policy

Clients are required to adhere to J&M Babysitting's financial policies, which mandate that babysitters are not authorised to accept payments for their services, with the exception of optional tips. Invoices or charges should not be accepted directly from any J&M Babysitting Sitter. Instead, clients should expect to receive the official invoice from J&M Babysitting, either through the contact number used for booking confirmation or via an official email from J&M Babysitting. Payments for services must be made using J&M Babysitting's approved payment methods, excluding direct cash payments to sitters.

Booking Policy

Clients are required to adhere to J&M Babysitting's safety policies, crucial for ensuring the well-being of children. This includes the unique provision for LittleLifts services, allowing parents to directly coordinate with their designated driver for arranging weekly trips, while maintaining the integrity of all professional interactions through J&M Babysitting. Despite this flexibility, offering private employment or direct payments to drivers remains strictly prohibited. All engagements, and resolutions of any disputes, must be facilitated through J&M Babysitting's official channels, detailed on www.jmbabysitting.co.za. This slight policy adaptation is exclusive to LittleLifts services, upholding our commitment to safety and quality care.

⚠ A fee may be charged for violating this Payment Policy or Booking Policy.
