Pet Health Policy

At J&M Babysitting, the health and happiness of your pets are our top priorities. We kindly request your cooperation in not entrusting us with pets that are or seem unwell at the first sitter meeting, as judged with care and concern by our sitters. This approach helps us maintain a safe environment for all pets.

Exceptions are made for pets with vet appointments or those on daily medication, as we're here to support their health journey.

While we dedicate ourselves to loving and attentive care, please understand that J&M Babysitting and our sitters cannot be held liable for injuries or other serious incidents. Your understanding and trust in our pet care philosophy are greatly valued.

Overnight Petcare Policy

During Overnight Petcare, sitters must be permitted to leave the house for up to 5 hours on each day, which do not need to be consecutive, for necessary errands and personal time.
